Hunsekuppe ...		36	...	...	36	" Of these about 4,000 are pieces whose length is below two feet.

I. The highest bidder of any lot which may be knocked down shall be the purchaser.

II. Should any lot be disputed, it shall be again put up and resold.

III. Each purchaser shall, immediately after a lot has been knocked down to him, sign his name opposite the number and specification of the lot bought by him, in a book provided for the purpose: such signature shall be held as an admission on his part of having bought such lot.

IV. Each purchaser will, before the close of the 3rd day from the date of sale, pay into the nearest Treasury, with Superintendent's letter of advice, 25 per cent of the total amount due by him as a deposit. Should any purchaser fail to comply with this regulation, the Superintendent will be at liberty to resell all or any part of the timber purchased by such defaulter who shall be required to make good any loss, but shall not participate in any profit on such resale.

V. The whole quantity purchased by each purchaser must be paid for within 30 days from the date of sale, failing which the deposit money already paid in shall be forfeited to the Government.

VI. No wood can be removed by any purchaser until it has been paid for in full and until a license to remove shall have been obtained from the Forest officer.

VII. Timber bought from the wood-yard at Mysore and paid for as above may be removed at any time within 30 days from date of sale without payment of wood-yard rent, but if left in the wood-yard for more than 30 days from the date of sale, shall be charged with wood-yard rent at 8 annas per log per mensem from sale.

VIII. In the case of all the other depôts named, the wood may be removed within 3 months without payment of rent, failing which, rent at the rate of one anna per lot per diem will be charged for each day in excess of the time specified.

IX. Every purchaser shall be bound to abide by the terms of his license granted for the removal of the wood.

X. The Superintendent shall be at liberty to stop the sale at any time without giving any reason to the intending purchasers and to withdraw any lots for which he may not consider the highest bid worthy of acceptance.

Sales will commence at 7 A. M. daily and will continue till about 11 A. M. or 12 noon.

The 19th August 1885.

No. 108.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi village, which has been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within 15 days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf, or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
